

Del Valle High School
Walnut Creek, California
1971 Yearbook

I do my thing, you do your thing.

I am not in this world to live up to your expectations,
And you are not in this world to live up to mine.

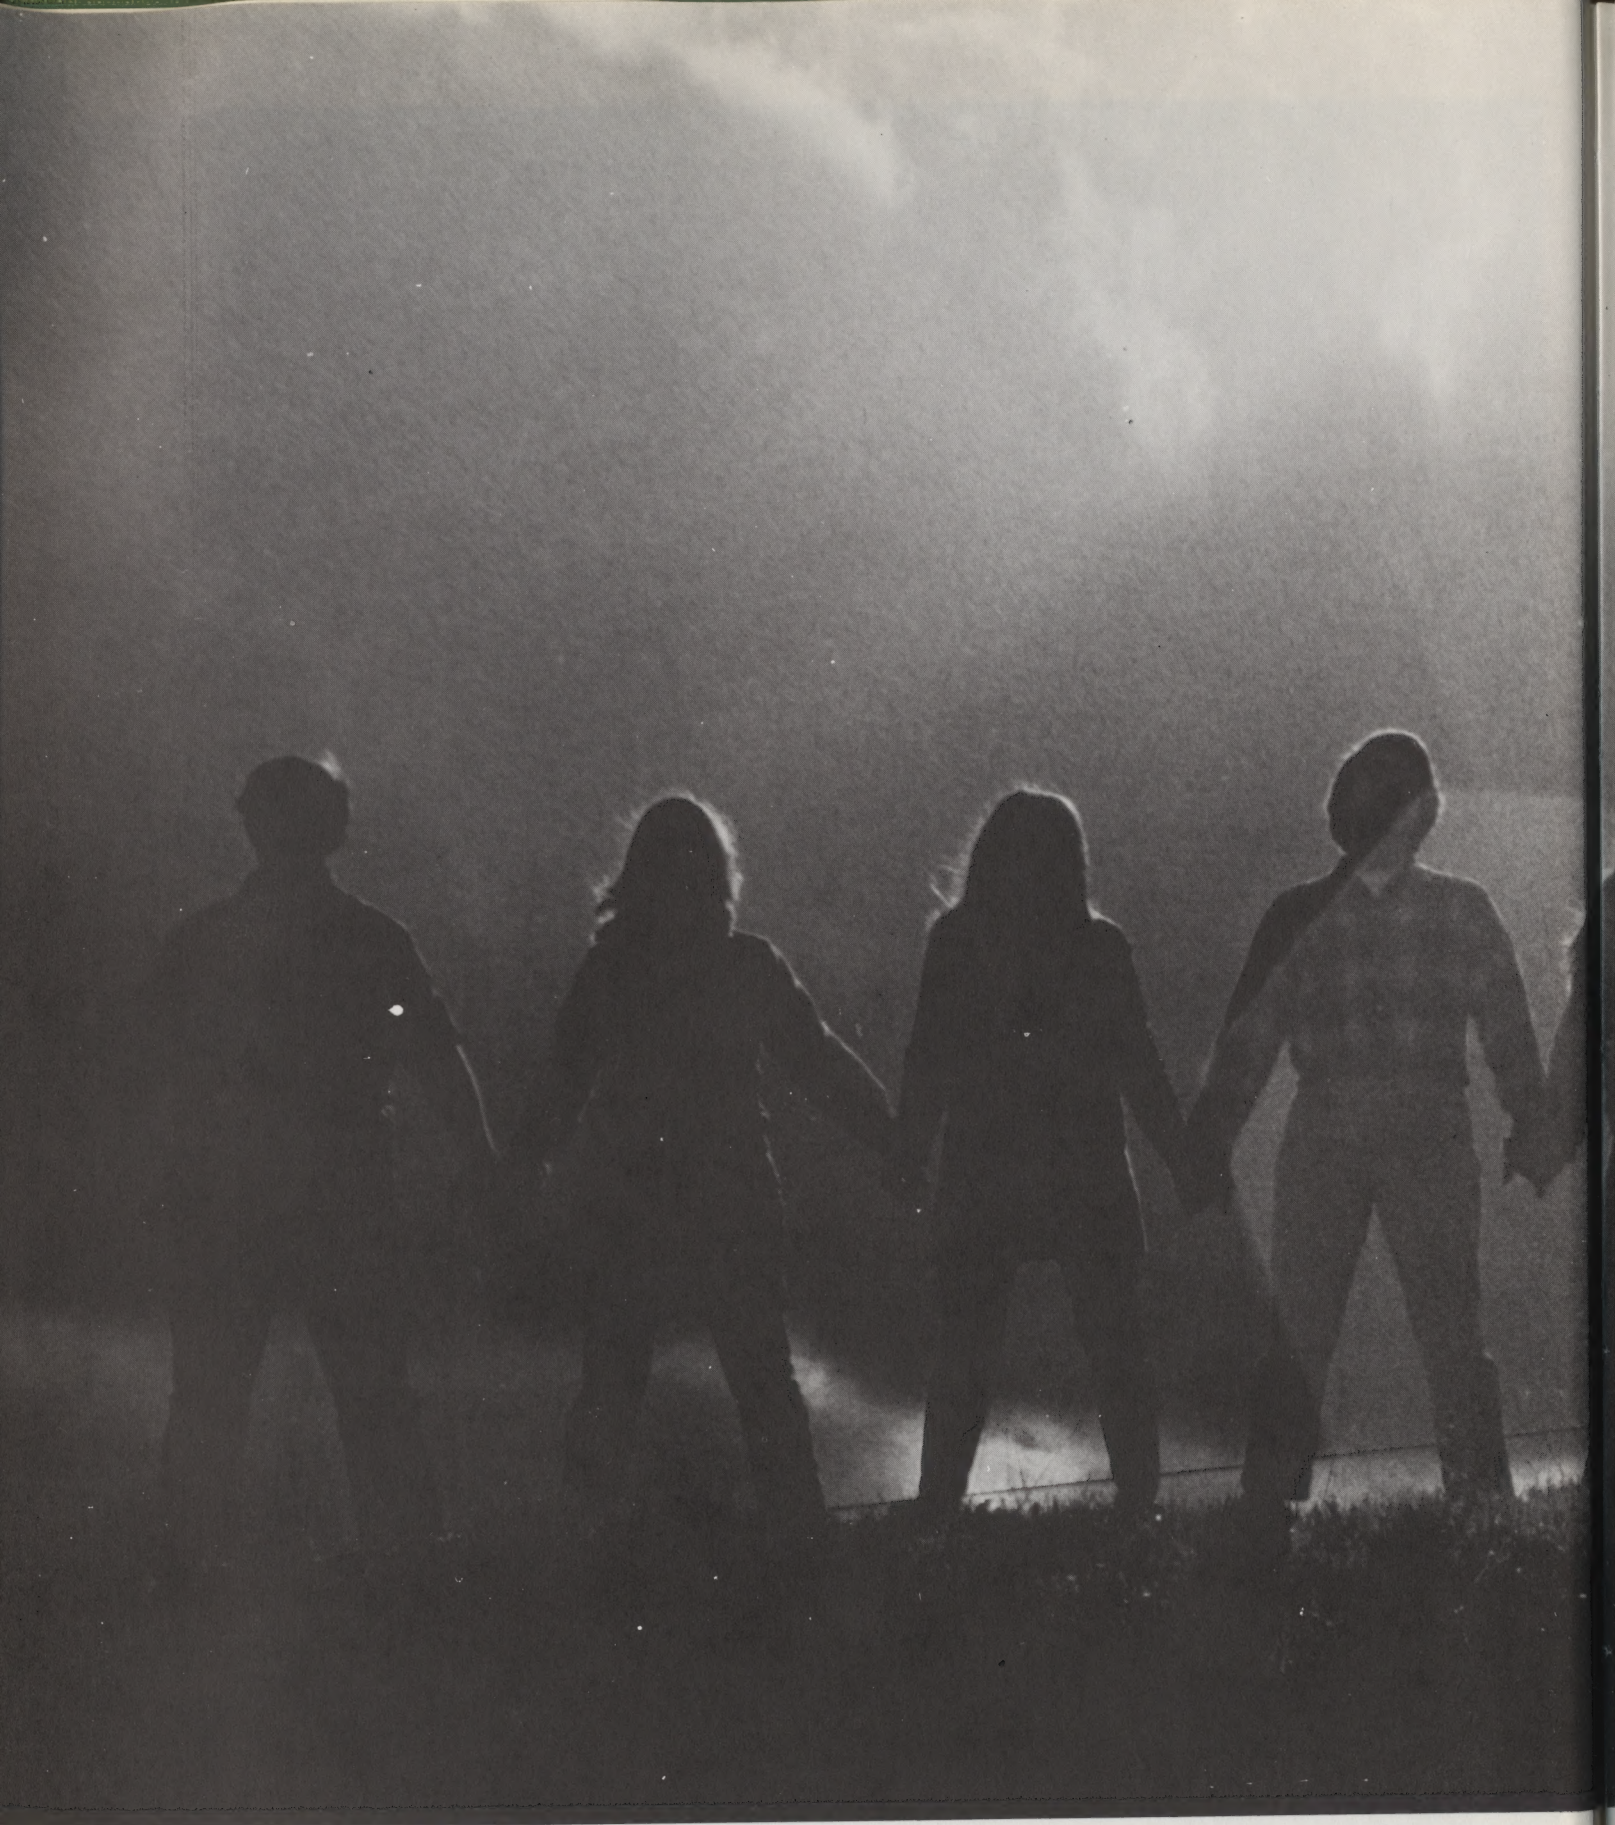
You are you, and I am I.



. . . And if, by chance, we find each other, it's beautiful!

A thing to do

A thing to reach higher for

A thing to try

look what they done to my song look what they done to my brain well they picked it like a chicken bone and i think i'm half insane

I am just a poor boy.
Though my story's seldom told,
I have squandered my resistance
For a pocketful of mumbles;
Such are promises
All lies and jest
Still, a man hears what he wants to hear
And disregards the rest.

Banberry Cross

Here is my song for the asking
Ask me and I will play
So sweetly, I'll make you smile
This is my tune for the taking
Take it, don't turn away
I've been waiting all my life

Thinking it over, I've been sad
Thinking it over, I'd be more than glad
To change my ways for the asking

Ask me and I will play
All the love that I hold inside

And Gareth answered her with kindling eyes:
"Nay, nay, good mother, but this egg of mine
Was finer gold than any goose can lay;
For this an eagle, a royal eagle, laid
Almost beyond eyereach, on such a palm
As glitters gilded in thy Book of Hours.
And there was ever haunting round the palm
A lusty youth, but poor, who often saw
The splendor sparkling from aloft, and thought,
'An I could climb and lay my hand upon it,
Then were I wealthier than a leash of kings.'
But ever when he reached a hand to climb,
One that had loved him from his childhood caught
And stayed him, 'Climb not lest thou break thy neck,
I charge thee by my love,' and so the boy,
Sweet mother, neither clomb nor brake his neck,
But brake his very heart in pining for it,
And passed away."

Reflections of an Awakened Manchild

by Craig Modderno ('68)

Graduation time, my child. Flowing freedom to follow. Running wild like a silent clock with broken, fractured hands. The theme for observers of history: to be is irrelevant as to be there. Having been where your thoughts have only known to imagine and by risking survival to come full circle again, reflections of an awakened manchild are examples of innocence misused or merely enlightened with experience. Relate as best you can realizing what has meaning for others may make in community the essence of your composure. But for now, friend, try turning without tune to season or desire for direction lest your dreams mature and perhaps disappoint the ignorant dreammaker.

The first born flushed forth into the seventies: narcissists perhaps, children of God in a belated effort not to be the last, citizens of America, regretfully half mast. Camped out on the land, your youthful comrades set the spirit of the sixties aglow. Woodstock, Chicago, Selma, Altamont, Telegraph Avenue, Watts, Kent State, Lamar, South Carolina and the Haight in San Francisco. Not so long ago Robert Kennedy gave the Children's Crusade one brief shining moment of what the light could be like within the hypocritical dream that we clouded Vietnam. The Vietnamization of America: Did we know Ernest Hemingway, Malcolm X, Janis Joplin, Tom Dooley, Lenny Bruce, Martin Luther King, Marilyn Monroe, Drew Pearson, John Steinbeck, Ruben Salazar, Medgar Evans, Gus Grissom, Viola Luizzo, Pope John XXIII, Allison Krause, Winston Churchill, John Kennedy, Whitney Young and the 50,000 Americans plus of Vietnam. They contributed to your existing freedom. Do you care? Should you know? What can you share with your peers? To each its own despite its years. Can what you did and what you fear help teach those behind to carry on? The great force of society is individual character. Some people have tact and others tell the truth.

"Then can I walk beside you. I have come here to lose the smog. And I feel to be a cog in something turning." Vision. Involvement. Standing up for your beliefs. Inspiration. What it meant to be ahead of your time and fighting injustice so that others' time will come: The Beatles, Ralph Nader, Bill Russell, Joan Baez, Kurt Vonnegut, Jr., Dr. Benjamin Spock, John Lindsay, John Cassavetes, William Kunstler, Norman Mailer, Kingman Brewster, Bill Graham, Woody Allen, Julian Bond, Caesar Chavez, Paul Newman, Clark Kerr, Rev. William Coffin, Edward Albee, Nicholas Johnson, Robert Zimmerman and Muhammad Ali. You must look into people as well as at them, knowing that in contributing your part is where all the honor lies.

Beware of those who sell you patriotic wars and classified morals while taking upon themselves to judge individual conscience. Power. Ego. Illegitimate conspiracy and public fraud.

Lyndon Johnson. J. Edgar Hoover. John Stennis. Henry Ford. Bobby Baker. Richard Nixon. Frank Shakespeare. The Warren Commission. The murderers of tranquility and sleep. Pontius Pilate and his silent majority applauding the crucifixion. Dylan the master prophet warned: "Don't follow leaders, watch the parking meters." The child awakens. Benjamin graduates and becomes sexually aware. "We're captive on a carousel of time. We can't return. We can only look behind from wher we came. And go round and round and round in the circle game."

Create heroes if you feel a need. But indeed live up to those ideals you claim for yourself, bearing in mind that in this life a fallen angel is the worst devil of all. Yossarian maintains perspective of our insanity. A plastic Jesus on our dashboard discounts our reality. Give of yourself but don't give your life away lest your promises of someday obstruct tomorrow's wish to think. "Well maybe it's the time of year or maybe it's the time of man. And I don't know who I am but life is for learning." The parents who are listening should not criticize their offspring, realizing the wisdom they preach is lost in the reflection of their own zealous youth.

Authority is not an answer unto itself. Hopeful but not helpless from pain. Material crisis. Can grace under pressure ever be maintained? Idealism. "Preserve your memories; they're all that's left you." Conflicting with the signs of the words of the prophets written on the subway walls and tenement halls whispered in the sounds of silence. Humanism. "When you need a friend, I'm sailing right behind. Like a bridge over troubled water, I will ease your mind." The first born of the seventies: what noble goals shall you pursue? And if you know the future shock that might destroy your cause could be your own apathy and hypocrisy, would you try to risk your life for your beliefs? Or damn all mankind as lost! "We are stardust. Million year old carbon. We are golden. Caught in the devil's bargain." Give is up. Speak out. Blow it up. Grow up. Just don't bumper sticker your ideas. "And we got to get ourselves back to the garden." The revolutionary virgin's debut in a world desperately needing change.

Seeking solitude from the massive urban and mental sickness of an environment outraged can only age your own credibility. The filmmakers record your insensitivity. Knowing disrespect and discourtesy is the most pornographic morality. When you murder one's feelings and—regardless of reason—one man's freedom to live. Peace. Make your own. Make it last. Awaken, children, to the reflection and implications of your own prayers. "You hold the key to love and fear all in your trembling hand. Just one key unlocks them both. It's there at your command." Those who can love freely shall be.

"There's nothing worth the wear of winning,
But laughter and the love of friends."
Hilaire Belloc
